Town Manager Is Subject Of West Street Resident's Anger

PLANNING BOARD CLAMPS DOWN ON ZONING CHANGES

Whether to park people or cars in the Town Park appears to be a problem facing the Board of Selectmen and the Planning Board in the near future.

A request from the Wilmington Ford Sales was received at the last Selectmen's meeting, for permission to buy a strip of land in the Town Park adjacent to land recently purchased by the Ford agency. This week, on request of the Selectmen, the Planning Board, represented by Danny Gillis and Bill Irwin, met with the Selectmen to give their recommendation on the proposed sale.

The Planning Board, they reported, is in opposition to such a move on the basis that there is plenty of land already zoned for general business and this parcel must be rezoned partially. Part of the land is zoned residential and part for industry. Mr. Gillis and Mr. Irwin held that the Town had paid for a zoning survey and that the time had come to start considering the reasons for the zones being laid out as they were.

Chairman of the Board of Selectmen Nicholas DeFelice asked the Planning board members whether they did not consider the land, on a highway and backed by a railroad, ideal industrial or business land. Mr. Gillis countered with, "Does the Ford Agency intend to use the RR?"

The land, between Patsy's farm and the Town Park, already purchased by the agency, once belonged to the farm. It was sold a few years ago to a man who wanted to construct a waste paper processing firm there. The new zoning laws prohibited such use and the land has lain idle since.

Mr. Gillis said that the Planning Board considered that there were enough used car lots on Main St. and that if the present trend continued it would be a "little Revere". Mr. DeFelice asked how Mr. Gillis knew what the Ford people intended to do there, to which Mr. Gillis replied that he didn't know, as the Ford people had not confided in the Planning Board.

During the course of the discussion, instances of flagrant disregard for the zoning by-laws were cited, and Mr. Gillis suggested that the Planning Board should bear down on these firms whose signs were illegal and the selectmen attend to those whose licenses did not cover operations that were in use.

The planning board members left after agreeing to meet with representatives of the Ford Agency and reconsider their ruling.

Town land can not be sold without the approval of a Town Meeting.

GALA CELEBRATION AT BEACH ON LABOR DAY

Final arrangements have been completed for the running of the fourth annual Recreation Swimming Carnival which will be held at the Silver Lake Beach on Labor Day afternoon at 1:30 p.m.

Events will be run for boys and girls of all ages and will include the pee-wee group for children from the cradle to seven years of age. The director of recreation Mr. Cushing has made several attempts to include a demonstration by frog men and it is expected that these men will put on an exhibition during the program. All contestants are reminded that they must be able to identify their residence in Wilmington if they wish to receive awards that are earned.

Trophies and medals will be awarded to winners in each class. Head Lifeguard Bob Swanson will be assisted by Miss Bennett, Tex Johnston, and John McCusker in putting on the races.

Residents of Wilmington are reminded that the swimming Carnival is the climax of the seasons activities and the beach will be officially closed following the holiday. The recreation commission wishes to publicly thank the members of the planning board for their assistance in furnishing the facilities for the summer months and in addition for making the presentation of trophies possible.

V.F.W. POST 2458 TO HOLD BOTTLE DRIVE

V.F.W. Post 2458 will launch their building fund drive by holding a bottle collection, Saturday, September 14 and Sunday, September 15, through the town of Wilmington.

It is requested that residents, desiring to donate their tonic and beverage bottles, help speed the collection by placing the bottles outside their doors where they may easily be obtained.

All monies derived from this program will be diverted into the post building fund, from which the future V.F.W. post will be built.

The bottles will be carried to the rear of the Shamrock Drive-in, where the popular Hal Foley will arrange for the sorting and packaging and then sent to the various company owners.

Phillip Leduc, Chairman of the drive, expects all members to assist in the program, and asks all citizens of the town to help the post by donating their bottles.

Town Manager Joseph Courtney bore the brunt of the anger of a resident of West St. who has had a road built across his front lawn, much to his surprise.

John Christopher brought his story to the attention of the Selectmen Monday evening. Mr. Christopher said that about two years ago he was shown a plan of a water line which was to cut across his property. He said he had no objection to the water line, but told the Town Engineer, George Winters, at the time, that no tree or planting on his property was to be touched.

After explaining the problem in trying to reach Mr. Winters and Mr. Courtney, Mr. Christopher said he finally got in touch with the gentlemen after telephoning fifteen times and asked what they intended to do. They told him, he said, that they were merely putting in water lines, but one day he came home and found that a bulldozer had cut a swath 30 to 50 feet wide across his lawn, tearing up, among other things, a plant that his father had brought from Italy many years ago, planted and nurtured in East Boston, and then transplanted to West St. Meanwhile, the dirt "road" was inviting horse and bicycle riders, as well as children, to take a short cut across it.

Mr. Christopher again tried to reach Mr. Courtney and after many calls contacted him. He said that Mr. Courtney promised to put up signs prohibiting traffic on the passageway but that they never were put up. (Mr. Courtney said, that at the time the highway department was having difficulty with vandalism with the signs and he felt that the signs would not stay there anyhow.) Mr. Christopher put up his own signs, which are still there, and being obeyed.

The County engineers recently surveyed the street to eliminate the treacherous curve near the Christopher property, Mr. Courtney reported, and soon the report would be in, with the County's plan for the new road. Until then, he said, no one can tell what is going to happen there.

In the meantime, the water line has been delayed because of the refusal by Mr. Christopher to let the workmen on his land. He was much disturbed, not by what was done, but by the way it had been done. He said that he had never received any notice of some operations, and improper and insufficient notice of others. At no time did he receive a letter regarding the matter. Mr. Courtney agreed that it had been "handled badly".

Asked how he wanted the matter settled, Mr. Christopher said that he simply wanted things as before, that the loam which had been pushed into the swamp restored to its banking in front of his home, and the property dressed as it had been.

Mrs. Drew questioned whether this was practical, as it was sure to be affected by the new road. However, Selectman Donald Kidder pointed out that the settlement in Mr. Christopher's case would be affected by the condition of the land when the County purchased it.

Mr. Christopher left with the assurance that the property would be restored as he wished. He said that he was as anxious as anyone for the people on West St. to obtain water.

(ha ha). I am still awaiting for my second week and the chance to pass out cigars. Conversation is still on as to who and when the New Louie will be made.

School will be starting again very soon and a word of caution is in order. Remember those School Zones that you have been flying through will be patrolled and violators will be punished. Also on the school subject a plea to all of you please when you call to see if there is to be any school, wont you try and remember that the number to us is OLiver 8-3346 and not the other one, which is an emergency line. No information will be given out over this one as far as no school signals go, this is for EMERGENCY Calls only. All the fault does not lie with the children, some of the adults might well heed this notice and mark down this number also, Business OL 8-3346. Labor day is usually significant of the ending of the summer season and even now the nights are getting dark a lot earlier, and the nights a little cooler. It might be wise to have that furnace checked before lighting it for the first time. You may avert a serious fire, by doing so. Also you might check that oil burner in the kitchen for leaks in and around the feed lines. And also have that checked and fixed if the need be, before you light it for the first time. I guess we will have to wait until next year for the the fishing trip as the enthusiasm seemed to be lacking this year for one, and it is getting a little too late in the season to plan on now.

Was glad to hear from Donald Razy that he received such a good mark in the Civil Service Entrance examination that he recently took. Don has been a member of the Call Force for a few Years now and we are glad he took the exam and will be on the list for the future acceptance on his Department, altogether there were three men that took and passed the exam so I am informed.

Well I guess that's about all for now so until next week. Remember "Fires don't start unless given the Opportunity". Let's make it our Business not to give them that opportunity.

LOWELL GL 2-1271
ENDS SATURDAY!

This week the meeting of the club will be a business meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. R. Deming on Federal Street and will be in the form of a cookout. The meal will be served out doors.

The committees on the various affairs has asked me to once again bring it to your attention that on August 31 from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. it will be "Lions Gas Day" at Bill and Mel's Texaco Station on Route 38 and the junction of Route 129. Bill and Mel have once again volunteered to surrender the station for the day to the Lions Club and all the profits from the sales for the day will go to the Lions Club to be used for some worthy charity. So try and make it a point to drop in to see us and also at the same time help us to help some one less fortunate than we.

This week's meeting should see some of the boys back from vacation and eager to get into the swing of things once again for another bang up year. King George has got us off to a flying start, so what say, lets keep up the good work and make it a real lively and progressive year for all.

From all reports the tickets to our Annual Ball are going good and what with the Andover Country Club being remodeled to accommodate more couples it can mean only one thing, more people can attend and therefore more people will be able to have a real bang up time. The Date has been set for October 18 and music will be by the Jack Hennessy Band. Refreshments will be served from twelve to one o'clock, and the price is $4.50 per couple. So for "the Ball of Your Life" make it the Lions Club Annual Ball in Andover.

A list for you to remember and make note of is:
Aug. 31 - Lions Gas Day - Bill and Mel's, Main Street.

Oct. 18 - Lions Club Annual Ball - Andover Country Club, Andover.

Nov. 11 - Lions Donut Sales Day - Country Style Dount Shop, Main St.

! ! ! - Lions Broom and Bulb Drive - All over Town.

I guess I'll have to bring this to a close for this week, folks. Remember to watch this column for important Lions Club Dates and Doings.

Happy Village Crowns King And Queen

"Happy Village" viewed Miss Joan Bennett, Assistant Director crown their chosen King Jackie Garden and Queen Sharon Johnson on Coronation Day, Friday, August 16, the last day of playground. The royal court processed to the thrones along a pathway formed by over 125 villagers. The crown bearers Eddie Suprenant and Tommy Johnson, the queen's attendants Carol Carason and Sheila Johnson, the flower girl Priscilla Johnson and the sceptre bearer Dennis Surprenant, attended the royal couple.

Queen Sharon presented Miss Bennett with a nosegay from Happy Village in appreciation of her contribution to their pleasant summer. Many mothers and children danced together. Mrs. Kenneth Wilson, Director, demonstrated a popular teaching medium, creative dramatics, in the form of "The Three Bears". Contents of family picnic baskets were enjoyed. Over 100 pirates enjoyed an orderly yet frolicsome treasure hunt on Thursday. The silver covered chest yielded a gift for each searcher who had previously supplied a trinket.

Lieutenant George Cushing of the Wilmington Fire Department and Officers George Shepard and Joseph Cuoco, of the Wilmington Police Department visited the children on Thursday. Both departments' representatives encouraged the young people to appreciate their friendly interest in the protection of the whole community.

The villagers were most grateful to the Woodsides for the space in the windows of the Wilmington Center Pharmacy. The children's crafts and special accomplishments of the summer were displayed all last week. The following volunteer

PLANS FOR GRANGE FAIR SPEEDING UP

the territory is not restricted. The only requirement that the finished product be the results of the efforts of the exhibitor. You must either make or grow the articles yourself.

The fair promises to be a gala affair with activities taking place each afternoon and evening. A cafeteria supper is being arranged for Saturday night and rumor has it that an old and trusted friend of the entire town will have a very definite "finger in the pie."

This is the forty-eighth annual Grange Fair in our town, get out your "bib and tucker", meander down to the hall and help make this one of the biggest and best in recent years.

If you care for further information, you may call either Mrs. Calnan of Mrs. Andrews. Mrs. Andrews is working as fair secretary, this year.

WORK IN FOREIGN LANDS

Africa, South America, Europe, Asia... an invitation to work in a foreign land is now being issued by Miss Kathryn Groot and Mrs. Morretti, Personnel Officers of the United States Department of State, to residents of the Boston area with a desire to travel and work abroad. The work, at one of 270 Embassies, Legations and Consulates in 78 countries, offers travel, the prestige of representing your country and the satisfaction which springs from knowing and working with people of foreign lands.

Travel need no longer be only a dream if you are a high school graduate between the ages of 21 and 35, single with no dependents, in excellent health and have been an American citizen for at least five years. Also, you must be willing to go anywhere in the world.

Applicants for Foreign Service will be interviewed at the Massachusetts State Employment Service, 6 Somerset Street, in Boston, from August 19, through August 30. Office hours will be from 9 A.M. to 4:30 P.M. daily and until 7 P.M. on Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

Positions open to qualified secretaries require a typing speed of 50 words a minute and shorthand at 96 words a minute. The starting salary is $3800 a year, plus overseas allowances. A starting salary of $3390 is offered to stenographers with a typing speed of 50 words a minute and a shorthand speed of 80; communications code clerks with a typing speed of 45 words a minute (qualified typists will be trained for the communications code clerk positions); and general clerical positions with a typing speed of 35 words a minute. All positions require at least three years of general office experience, but applicants may substitute business school or college training for no more than two years of work experience.

Salaries are supplemented by either free housing or a housing allowance; at some posts a cost-of-living allowance and, for duty in hardship areas, a post differential ranging from 10 to 25 percent of the base salary. For instance, a stenographer in Saigon, Viet-Nam, receives $6700 a year; in Caracas, Venezuela, $6870 a year; and, in Madrid Spain, $4290 a year.

Liberal vacations provide time for sightseeing, shopping and other recreation determined by your tastes, but hampered by the customs of the land. Many an interesting hour is spent by Foreign Service employees as they compare notes on safaris, skiing on the Zugspitze, wild boar hunting in Australia, golfing on sand courses or the fun of finding activities "just like back home" in foreign lands.

Upon completion of a two year tour of duty, employees are returned to their homes in the States for six weeks of home leave before reporting to their next overseas assignment.

If you are not ready to launch a stimulating career abroad, jobs for typists and stenographers are available at the Department of State's headquarters in Washington, D.C. Starting salaries range from $3175 to $3415 a year. Applicants must be 18 years of age and able to type 40 words a minute. Applicants for the stenographic positions must, in addition, be able to write shorthand at 80 words a minute.

Special appointments and additional information can be obtained by telephoning Lafayette 3-4525.

An officer of the Sun Oil Company warns that small communities must do more long-range planning or face the prospect of having state, interstate and federal authorities and commissions take over. Problems which, in his opinion can and should be solved at the local level include transportation, housing, labor supply, water, and adequacy of investment capital.

Parent have also been invited to attend to school during the morning hours and visit with the classes. A movie on Christian Family life was shown earlier in the morning and parents were also invited to view this movie.

Harding in expressing sincere gratitude to those who have given their services these two weeks. Those persons include, Paul Bodenstein, Associate Director; Mrs. Roland Clark, Superintendent of the Kindergarten Department; Mrs. Donald Young, Superintendent of the Junior Department; Mrs. Waldo Stevens, Mrs. Fred Kenderdine, Mrs. Raymond Gardner, Mrs. Ralph Newell, Misses Judy and Jayne MacMelville, Misses Marion and Nancy Taylor, John Robertson, Miss Betsy Flight, Miss Charlene Sullivan, Miss Jean Sidelink, with Mrs. James Madden and Mrs. Albert Valentino in charge of refreshments.

SERMONS ON PARABLES OF JESUS TO CONTINUE AT METHODIST CHURCH

The Rev. Richard E. Harding continued his summer series of sermons on the parables of Jesus, Sunday, August 25, at 9 a.m. At this he preached on the topic: "Two Weren't Afraid" based on the parable of the talents. Miss Yolandi Moe was soloist and Mrs. Raymond Gardner organist for the service of worship. Families are reminded that a nursery class for small children meets during the worship hour, thus enabling parents to worship with older children. Sunday, September 1, at 9 a.m. Ariel Wood, local preacher of the Methodist Church will preach the sermon in Mr. Harding's absence. He will be the guest minister at the Wesley Methodist Church in Springfield, where he was one of the summer preachers last year.

As My Garden Sleeps

By Mari Gold

Wilmington Displays Many Fine Gardens:

In spite of all the hot dry weather, I have noticed some beautiful gardens in town when riding up and down the various streets. P. Martin has a lovely truck garden which you can see growing right next to his stand, just as you emerge from Salem St.

Many fine gardens may be found on Concord St. There is some friendly but stiff competition going on between Mr. Eames and Mrs. Cole. My what fine cukes. Following Federal St., out to Middlesex Ave., Joe Ring has a very neat appearing vegetable garden. Now we will take a look at some Turning toward Wilmington Center, after passing Nichols Corner, one of the most magnificent gardens anywhere may be viewed on your right. The proud gardener is Mr. Joe McMahon. He has achieved a fine array of color. Now, lets go up around Powder House Circle, it certainly is a pretty drive. Going straight up Church St., we must not fail to glance at the garden around the house of Mr. Charles Black.

Among the many fine gardens in town, I feel that the blue ribbon winner in their midst would be Mrs. Michelson for her garden around the Shoe Store. Mrs. Michelson in this location, has many added things to contend with including traffic dust, extra heat caused by the sun on the pavement and the town dogs. In spite of all her problems she manages to have an exquisite display of color.

These people have taken old mother nature by her collar of hot dry weather and fought right back, with gratifying results. There are many more fine gardens in town and as I ride around, I will attempt to draw your attention to the efforts of these energetic people.

Now is the time of year when everyone thinks of bulbs, no type of garden flower gives so much for so little care and effort. With bulbs, you can have a complete succession of bloom all year round, beginning with the Snow Drops, Crocus and all the little plants which seem to actually poke their most welcome heads right through the melting snow. The early blooms will be followed by the Daffodils, Tulips, Iris, Gladiolus, Lilies, Tuberos Begonia and Canviss. When fall is nearly at hand, the lovely Dahlia will end the season in a burst of glory.

The winter months may also be filled with bloom for anyone who has a dark closet and a sunny window. No wonder the bulb plants are becoming so very popular. Narcissus bulbs are the easiest to grow. All you will need to do is plant them and forget them until they remind you by blooming in the spring. Spring flowering bulbs bloom so early in the season that they do not have time to develop a root structure if planted the same season, so it is best to start the various types from late September until November. One of the most common bulbs should be planted in the early fall. They are perfectly hardy. Plant them six to eight inches apart and four inches deep in groups of three or more. Plant in perennial border or in very light shade. They will multiply and must be divided after three or four years. The blossoms are very fragrant and are rose lilac in color.

If the dry weather discouraged you this summer, cheer up, there is always next year. If you had prosperous weeds in your garden, it would be wise and worth the trouble to get rid of them this fall. One bad weed is Pusley. It does not grow tall, but runs along the ground. The leaves are thick and it is much like a cat, having what would seem to be nine lives. They should be checked immediately. You will probably be asking "sure, but how?"

Most weeds will die if left in the hot sun after being hoed from the soil, but pusley. The best way to my knowledge to be rid of this nuisance is to burn it in the incinerator, or perhaps use a weed killer. A friend of mine had a brown bag all tied up tight for the junk collector and asked me to guess what it contained. As I am very poor at guessing games, she told me, "why it is a bag of pusley, I don't want it in my garden and I don't know what else to do with it.

Now that muddy days will be coming along, one way to keep your fingernails clean is: before you go out to work in the garden, run your nails over a cake of bath soap. This will fill under the nails, then when you are finished gardening, both dirt and soap are easily removed.

NEWCOMERS VISITED

The above mentioned people were visited by Marion J. Woller, Welcome Wagon Hostess for Wilmington.

LIVING with your HEART

A COMMUNITY SERVICE OF THE
MASSACHUSETTS HEART ASSOCIATION

("Living With Your Heart" is written and distributed weekly as a public service of the Massachusetts Heart Association.)

The length of your life may depend in great measure upon the consistency of your blood.

Massachusetts Heart Association research, therefore, places heavy emphasis on blood clots - one of the top causes of death in heart and circulatory diseases.

One of several projects involving bloodflow has revealed that "flying saucers" in the bloodstream, swarming to the site of an artery injury, underlie the clots which constitute a major cause of coronary thrombosis - the classic "heart attack."

These "flying saucers," which stick to the injured areas of blood vessel walls, are known to medical science as platelets. They are infinitesimal wafer-shaped bodies which come about half a million to one small drop of blood.

Working with hamsters, whose clotting mechanisms resemble our own, Dr. Herbert J. Berman, American Heart Association research fellow, and Prof. George P. Fulton, chairman of Boston University's biology department, have uncovered vital characteristics of these platelets.

When injury to a blood vessel is slight, for instance, they quickly coat the affected area. If it is more intense, they not only coat the wall but pile up like a logjam until they block the bloodflow.

This leads to the formation of a clot, which often breaks up harmlessly in the body, but if it does not can not only result in heart attacks but in cerebral strokes.

The investigation has shown that platelets at the site of an artery injury snowball, and all that is needed for a sizeable clot is a very small region where the platelet-pileup can form. Then a major "red-clot" may form automatically.

Work on platelets outside the living body may suggest that they give off their contents gradually within the body, but the evidence is sparse. It is suspected that they may give off most of their granular content at one time, thus becoming "ghosts."

However, there is proof that the platelets act as sponges by absorbing certain substances from blood plasma - for example, serotonin, a constrictor of blood vessels. Reserpine, the hypertension tranquilizer, releases serotonin from the platelets.

LIFE LINES

IS PRAYER ANSWERED?

The door of the operating room swung open, and the stretcher was wheeled in. The surgeon and his helpers prepared to operate.

They were doing so, in one last desperate hope that it might save a human life.

For days, the boy, Bob Stout, had lain in the Perth Amboy hospital, his life slowly ebbing, because of a brain injury suffered in a traffic accident.

Reluctantly, knowing that it was a desperate gamble, the operation was planned. It was 11:20 a.m. on Sunday morning.

Just before administering the anesthetic, the surgeon checked Bob's heart-beat and breathing. There was a change - slight, but perceptible. The operation was delayed fifteen minutes, and he was examined again. There could be no question, the shock was subsiding. By some miracle, his condition was definitely improved. There was no operation.

He was wheeled back to his room, and a constant check was kept upon his condition. It steadily improved; the pressure upon his brain was decreasing. Little by little, his bodily functions returned to normal.

A few days later, he was able to leave the hospital. It was only then that the puzzled doctors at the hospital learned that on Sunday morning, at just 11:20 a.m., the pastor of Bob's church had said, as he began his prayer at the morning service: "Father, remember Bob Stout, in the hospital, and heal him."

A new survey finds that 25,000 U. S. citizens are working for American business abroad. Thirty oil firms employ the greatest number - a total of 10,840.

The methods of Communism are succinctly described by a top authority, Mao Tse-tung, Chief of the Communist Chinese State: "We in China...have used force to deal with enemies of the people. The total number of those who were liquidated by our security forces numbers 800,000. This is the figure up to 1954." Since then, he added, "persuasion and education" have been substituted for terror.

A FREE MARKET

U.S. News & world Report has published a long interview with Economics Minister Dr. Ludwig Erhard of the German Federal Republic. In explaining reasons for West Germany's remarkable postwar recovery, he said: "The more the principle of the free market can be applied, the more productive the economy and the higher the standard of living. Wherever a free-market economy prevails, there are sound currencies and no need at all for manipulating them. The more functions of the market place are taken over by government planning, the greater the danger becomes that productive forces will be stifled and that individual initiative will suffocate."

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Morrison of Cypress St., returned home on Saturday evening, following a week's vacation with Mr. Morrison's parents in Hartland, Maine. The Morrisons were accompanied on their trip by their children, Barbara and Stillman.

HEALTH FOR ALL
More and More Blind:

Progress is the story in almost every aspect of our nation's health. Every year gains are chalked up against cancer, heart disease, tuberculosis, mental illness and diseases of infancy. Blindness, however, is on the increase. Last year more American lost their sight than in any previous year: 27,000 men, women and children.

Why is the sightless population of the United States at a record high of 334,000? Science has made progress in knowledge about the human eye. Much has been learned about how to prevent blindness. And yet we have more and more blind.

Apparently the reason lies in the increasing number of older people in our population. Medical science and higher standards of living are keeping us alive longer. Consequently there is an increase in the disabilities associated with aging. Older people account for about half the cases of blindness in this country.

Cataract and glaucoma are primary causes of blindness for our senior citizens. The causes of these and many other diseases of the eyes are still unknown. But they can be treated and blindness prevented if full use is made of present knowledge about them. Most cataracts can be corrected surgically, and glaucoma can be controlled with medication or surgery if - and it's a big if - discovery is made early and treatment begun promptly.

Experts estimate that about a million Americans have glaucoma, and half of these are today unaware of their condition.

What can we do about this needless waste of precious sight? Well, how long has it been since you had your eyes examined? You may never have needed glasses or had trouble with your eyes. But if you're over 40, you should have a competent eye examination every two years.

You might find it a moderate nuisance to put drops in your eyes every day to control a mild case of glaucoma. But you would also be reading, watching television, going to movies, enjoying the faces of friends and family, instead of living in a world without light.

HAPPENINGS THAT AFFECT THE FUTURE OF
EVERY INDIVIDUAL
National and International Problems Inseparable From Local Welfare

A rising population and improving living standards automatically broaden the market for food and other farm products. Even so, it is believed that the productive capacity of American agriculture will outrun consumption for many years to come - which means that we will continue to have a surplus problem unless new and different kinds of markets are found and developed. That is why much attention is now being given to the possibilities of increased use of agricultural products by industry.

The 84th Congress established a bipartisan commission to examine the matter. In carrying out its assignment, the commission obtained the assistance of 188 of the country's outstanding leaders in agriculture, industry and science. Its report has now been made - and it is an exceedingly interesting one.

The question the commission dealt with is this: "Can the economy develop profitable industrial markets capable of absorbing enough of the excess farm production to minimize, possibly even to eliminate, the need for costly restrictions, supports, and surplus-disposing operations?" The commission found that "the answer is an emphatic Yes, providing the necessary steps are taken to make possible and encourage such a development."

There are four main needs. The first is a sufficiently sharp sense - now lacking - of the importance, the possibilities, and the urgency of the industrial utilization approach to farm surplus problems. The second is a greatly expanded program of both fundamental and applied research - a program which would not be confined to the laboratory but, in promising instances, would go through the development stages of pilotplant experiment and trial commercialization. The third is to ensure, through fellowships, scholarships, grants and other means that much more scientific talent is trained for and channeled into this neglected field. The fourth is to provide, when necessary, suitable financial incentives during a temporary trial or development period. The initial step, the commission states, is sound legislative action by Congress.

The commission emphasizes that, by comparison with industry, agricultural research is in the doldrums. Industry is currently investing at least $3 billion a year - three per cent of gross sales in research, and the result is a constant flood of new and improved products. Agriculture spends not more than $375 million a year on research - about one per cent of gross sales - and most of this goes to improve and increase production, rather than for utilization research. Consequently, the commission says "agriculture has been researched out of a good part of its natural markets" through the increasing use of detergents, synthetic fabrics, leather substitutes and so on.

The commission proposes that a five-member non-partisan Agricultural Research and Industrial Board be created by Congress, or alternatively, that responsibility for the program be placed in the Department of Agriculture, under a director with Assistant Secretary rank. And it makes another important suggestion - that the program be undertaken in a way that will "... add as little as possible to the structure of government."

"The modern enlightened business concern no longer feels that its functions are confined to its own business operations. Rather, these functions extend beyond the door-steps of the plant and move out into many segments of community life. The more acute the community problems, the more need there is for this kind of service."

—Thomas M. Hennessey, vice President, New England Telephone & Telegraph Co.

ion service, and Mr. Donald Tibbetts will commence his year's internship as full time assistant to the minister.

On Sept. 8 Family Sunday will be observed, with a single worship service at 11 o'clock, at which time parents and children will worship together in the sanctuary. V.F.W. MOVIE MATINEE

Starting Saturday, September 28, the popular children's Movie Matinee will open for the second season at the club quarters on Main Street.

These movies proved very vastly entertaining to the children last year and provided mothers with an opportunity to shop or get their cleaning done while their children were safely being entertained, under the watchful eyes of the post members.

A new series of special children's films are being arranged, while candy and tonic will be available. It is expected that the same popular price of 15 cents per child will be admission fee, and the movies will start at 2:00 p.m. and be over at 4:15. Parents are requested to call for the kiddoes at closing time, as the children will not be allowed to leave without escort.

Arrangements are being made to provide some small surprise gift for the children and all in all, the children will be happily and safely entertained.

Remember the date, September 28, 2:00 p.m. at the V.F.W. Quarters.

GOOD PLANNING FROM BELOW THE GROUND UP...

Let us help you to plan your new home starting with a basement designed for a convenient storage area — a rumpus room or workshop. The first step is supplementing the inside stair with access directly to the outside. Nothing does this better than a modern, all steel BILCO — the door installed on so many thousands of new homes.

Ask us about steel stringers, too, a new BILCO product that greatly reduces the cost of building the stairs under your BILCO Door. Call us for free literature, or better still, stop in any time for complete information on these products that help you to enjoy a really useful, safe basement.

SELECTMEN'S NEWS

Mrs. Ethel Clinch of Chestnut St., was drawn for jury duty at the Civil Session in Lowell Oct. 7, and Allen MacMullin of Forest Ave. was drawn for the Jury Pool at East Cambridge at the Selectmen's meeting Monday evening.

A petition from resident of Oakridge Circle requesting that their street be improved under the betterment act was placed in the file for the next Town Meeting. Oct. 15 was set as the last date to accept applications for betterments. A letter from a civic group in Stoughton asking the Selectmen to support a bill by Atty Gen. Fingold regarding imprisonment of sex offenders was voted on favorably by the board, with the suggestion that the amendments proposed by Sen. Leslie Cutler be included.

Another letter, requesting the presence of an outstanding son or daughter of an immigrant at the Hall of Flags, State House, on Sept. 17, was received from Freedom, Inc. The celebration in honor of Constitution Day.

The Board approved the request of the B&M RR to remove the Ballardvale Bridge, fill in the RR bed and construct a road in its place.

The Board went into executive session at 10:47 and adjourned at 12:15.

SUNNYHURST AWARDED MILK CONTRACT

Low bidder for supplying milk to Wilmington's School children once again was the Sunnyhurst Dairy of Stoneham. Milk will be supplied in glass bottles, which have proved more successful than paper cartons. The children are much more prone to finish milk in bottles than they are in the cartons.

CAGNEY PLAYS STRANGEST ROLE IN 'MAN OF A THOUSAND FACES'

"Man of a Thousand Faces," starring James Cagney, Dorothy Malone and Jane Greer, announced as Universal - International's special release for Hollywood's Golden Jubilee, has its local opening Sunday, September 1, at the Chelmsford Drive In Family Theatre.

Filmed in CinemaScope, the picture deals with personal secrets and times of the late Lon Chaney, strange star of silent movies and known as filmland's legendary mystery man.

Cagney appears as the famous wizard of pantomime and makeup whose private life was even more fantastic than the affairs of maladjusted characters he portrayed on the screen.

Chaney, the picture reveals, was the son of deaf-mute parents. Beginning his career as a humble vaudeville clown, an early matrimonial scandal forced him to hide from disgrace - behind the grotesque movie make-up which ironically brought fame and fortune.

Miss Malone has the role of Chaney's first wife, Cleva Crieghton, frustrated showgirl who almost destroyed the actor through her own shocking suicide attempt. Chaney's second spouse, Hazel Bennett, the one person who knew his secrets, is portrayed by Jane Greer. Roger Smith enacts the part of Lon, Jr.

The added feature on this program is the thrilling action hit "This Man Is Dangerous."

NORA AND JENNY ZENGILOWSKI VISIT YELLOWSTONE

We called Mrs. Zengilowski Tuesday morning to inquire about her trip to Wyoming, from which she recently returned home. Her opening statement to us was "anyone who spends money taking a trip to Europe before seeing these United States makes a serious mistake."

Nora Zengilowski and her daughter Jenny, both of 842 Woburn St., travelled to Cleveland where they joined Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Reavis (former Helen Zengilowski). From Cleveland, they toured by automobile through, Indiana, Iowa and Illinois. While driving through Juliet, Ill, they were caught in the recent flash floods in that area and were forced to travel through water deep enough to cover the hub-caps of the car.

In South Dakota our friends viewed the famous Black Hills and the Bad Lands. Mrs. "Z" stated for our benefit that the miles and miles of sage brush was really quite a site for "Eastern Eyes".

Obtaining lodgings at Yellowstone National Park, they had a most complete tour of the area, visiting of course, the world-known "Old Faithful". Many other such gushers may be seen in the area, all of varying colors, blue, yellow, green and pink. At the same site, a huge "natural" may be seen with a Jet-black substance boiling that it may be heard at quite some distance. Only a few feet away from boiling springs, one could put their hand into the icy cold water, another trick of nature.

Visits were also made to the natural bridge, Rockmore Cave and the petrified tree, which to most knowledge is the only such tree in existence today.

The birthplace of William Cody (in Cody, Wyoming) should also be of interest to any loyal American, says Mrs. Zengilowski.

Home again Nora and Jenny have this to say: "It's nice to be home, but we're very happy that we decided, as the saying goes "to see America first". "If you have the opportunity to travel, you need never cross water to see many wonderful things."

Chapin Chatter

I was thinking that a set of teeth are very much like a heating system. Have you ever had a toothache? I have, for the last week, and it struck me very painfully that teeth, which are taken for granted over a good many years are much like a heating system.

In the beginning then teeth are whole and strong, and perform their duty without complaint. If given daily care and minor cavities are filled early and a thorough check is made at frequent, regular intervals, they will last for a lifetime. If, however, they are taken for granted small cavities become large ones. Then an ache, agony, and loss of sleep and disposition, and then you lose it. If this continues tooth by tooth they're all gone with a series of agonizing sessions attending each one, and you end up with a new set long before you should.

This process is not too different than what happens to a heating system.

When it is new, it functions beautifully; keeps you warm and cozy; and you don't have to think of it from one year's end to the next. If it gets a yearly check up, and, as small troubles occur they are remedied, the system will assure you of trouble free operation, free from small or large expensive annoyances for many years.

So far the dentists have not offered an all coverage plan to take care of our teeth, but we, at Chapin-Nichols, have for your oil burner.

It's called our PERPETUAL COMFORT GUARANTEE, and provides a yearly check-up, complete cleaning of the oil burner, and furnace. Any parts that are needed are replaced at that time. Any parts that are required throughout the year, which includes tank, combustion chamber, motors, transformers, controls, filter - everything - as well as all service calls through the years. At the same time we can advise of needed repairs on the heating system.

Call Mr. Nichols or me at REading 2-3290 and we will be glad to tell you more about it.

Best Regards,
Paul Rimbach
